

I feel that an airplane is no place for a cell phone. I would not want to have to listen to 30 different conversations going on during my flight. I also would not want all the other passengers listening to my conversation!